

Our Town

By Peggy Blanchard
Conventional news to date should include the names of Mrs. Mariam Smith, Mrs. Arrah Peck and Mrs. Edith Morley, Ed C. Lee and Guy Smith, who represented the local American Legion Post and its auxiliary at a recent Legion convention in Los Angeles.

Full of enthusiasm for a big project—enthusiasm for building St. Lucy's parish a new rectory—St. Lucy's guild members are bustling about arranging for a benefit dance. Their committee called on us this week to outline their plans—this evening they'll discuss them further when Ann Stojanovich and Geraldine Furtado entertain the group.

I yield championship of the trouble-borrowers to the man who fears incorporation of Campbell may make us too entitled!

Campbell's population is already near the size of a small city, but its rural atmosphere is the result of a comfortable meandering if its streets and lanes through orchards and gardens that will certainly be even better protected by local self government.

Take a look at Campbell avenue's sleepy facade any evening after nine p.m., too—I just can't believe incorporation will suddenly turn it into a roaring metropolitan thoroughfare.

George Jeffers' birthday Wednesday occasioned an informal open house at his office and store that afternoon. Mrs. J. C. Hummel's luscious chocolate cake, baked especially for the birthday party took most of the limelight.

Communications from Betty Allen, former editor of the Press and author of this column's predecessor, indicate she's keeping tab on us from her new home near Portland, She and Martin and Denney have added 2 horses and a puppy or two to their menage and were enjoying a gorgeous Indian summer in their semi-rural surroundings when last heard from.

Sisters Visit First Time In 24 Years

Sisters were united last week for the first time in 24 years when Mrs. Virginia Guthrie of New Bedford, Mass., arrived in Campbell to visit her sister, Mrs. John Regallo of 220 No. Central street.

While here Mrs. Guthrie is also visiting with her mother, Mrs. Mary Vedia and another sister, Mrs. Joseph Frierias.

R.A.S. CLUB MEETS

Margaret Cleveland was hostess at the Tuesday night meeting of the R.A.S. club.

The trip to the city, which had been planned for Saturday, was postponed until after Christmas. The group discussed plans for raising money by selling Christmas cards. The meeting then adjourned and refreshments were served by the hostess.

Campbell high school's lightweight basketball teams scored a clean sweep over the Bellarmine Bells recently. Campbell's 110's won by a 35-13 score, and the 20's won by a narrow 18-15 count.

Health education is one of the important year-round activities of the Santa Clara County Tuberculosis Association whose tuberculosis eradication program is financed solely through the annual sale of Christmas Seals, this year to be mailed November 24.

Campbell Group Seeks Local Bank; Need Of Service Here Is Emphasized

File Request For State Franchise

If the plans of a group of Campbell business leaders carry, the long famine in banking in this community is about to be broken. On Monday, October 24, an examiner of the State Banking Department will make an investigation of the public necessity for a State chartered bank in Campbell. The investigation is being made in response to an application filed with the State Banking Department by W. N. Lloyd, Carl B. Field, O. C. Jensen, G. E. Farley and G. K. Schrader. Other local men who are aiding the project are J. V. Gomes and Ralph H. Hyde. This action has been taken because efforts to obtain a branch office of one of the larger banks have been unsuccessful.

The proposed bank will be cap-

Application Made or Campbell Bank

The Bank of America has made application to the Comptroller of Currency in Washington, D.C., to establish a branch bank in Campbell. Application to the comptroller was necessary as the Bank of America is a National Reserve bank.

Two sites are available for a bank if the franchise is granted. All business firms are being asked to wire pleas to the comptroller urging the establishment of a bank in Campbell.

Address of the comptroller is: Preston De Lano, U. S. Comptroller of Currency, Washington, D.C.

A bank is becoming an increasing necessity in Campbell. Many business firms are having to act as bankers for their clients and the volume of money involved is requiring a daily or twice daily trip to San Jose or Los Gatos and a wait of an hour or more standing in line.

There is also possibility that a number of businesses in Campbell will incorporate to establish their own bank.

Real Estate Changes Hands

Real estate exchange is brisk these days as evidenced by the recent exchange of three business properties in the Campbell area.

The Pepper Tree Market on the San Jose-Los Gatos road was sold by Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Sheeter and Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Ballot to F. A. Coombs, former owner of the grocery store. Sheeter reports that they have no definite business plans for the future and that the Ballots are planning a trip to Florida.

The Blue Jay Fountain, 8 S Winchester Road, will legally exchange hands on October 30 when Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln F. Howatt turn over the property to Thomas Spivey of 869 South First street, San Jose.

Spivey has plans to remodel and enlarge the fountain and will close the establishment immediately after taking over. Spivey is also the owner of The Five Spot in San Jose and The Village Creamery in Los Gatos.

Mr. and Mrs. Howatt are planning to take a trip back east before taking on any new work. They purchased the fountain in June of 1946.

Across the street from the Blue Jay, the Buccaneer, formerly The One Stop, was sold by Abe Hathoot to Bob Peterson and Vicky Armas.

Acadri's Appliance Shop, East Campbell avenue, "posed" for its picture recently as part of an article Electrical West Magazine is preparing about the local store for a future issue.

PAST NOBLE GRANDS

Past Noble Grand association Ada Rebekah Lodge No. 223, will meet this evening with Mrs. Virginia Currie, Second street. Mrs. Myra Payne will assist the hostess.

itized at $100,000 and will provide all the banking services of other commercial and savings banks. If the state investigation is favorably acted upon the organizers will be authorized to apply for federal deposit insurance. This depositor protection is obtained by meeting the requirements of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation and provides each depositor of the bank with insurance up to $5000 on his account. When this approval is obtained the proposed bank will be ready for operation and will open temporarily in the former Post Office building. Construction of a modern bank building with adequate parking facilities will be commenced as soon as practicable after the final license is granted.

Campbell has been without banking service since 1936, although it enjoyed this convenience from 1900 when the original Bank of Campbell was incorporated. About 1918 this bank was purchased by the Garden City Bank and Trust Co. and some two years later the latter institution was taken over by the Mercantile Trust Co., which later became the American Trust Co. In 1936 the Campbell branch was closed pursuant to an internal policy of closing country branches of less than $1,000,000 deposits. The growth in population and business in the Campbell area since that time makes it one of the most heavily populated areas in California without banking service. Organizers of the bank estimate that there are 12,000 people living within a radius of three miles of the center of Campbell.

Mr. Lloyd has had banking experience in this community, having worked in the Bank of Campbell and the Campbell branch of the American Trust Co. for thirteen years. In 1933, when he left that organization, he was assistant manager of the branch office.

Organizers of the bank are confident of local support for an independent bank, since the services offered and provided will be the same as by larger banks, including safe deposit boxes. Federal deposit insurance will be obtained before operations begin which will insure every depositor up to $5000; and they feel that dollars put in a home owned bank will stay in the community to help the development of Campbell.

NEW RESIDENTS

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Gould and son, Bruce, are new residents at 24 S. Milton avenue. The Goulds, who moved here from Itasca, Ill., are delighted with Campbell and California. They have been out here for six weeks and in Campbell one week.

Gould is employed by the U. S. Gypsum company in San Jose. Mrs. Gould reports she is interested in finding a bridge game. The Goulds are living in the Billinger home for the present while the Billingers are spending the winter in Palm Springs.

Consider Yule Trimmings For Campbell Streets

Holiday decorations from Rincon Avenue at Winchester and along Campbell Avenue to the Los Gatos highway are in prospect.

The Chamber of Commerce has appointed L. E. Garcia to present the idea to local merchants with a view to trimming the streets with Christmas lights and other decorations during the holidays.

The C of C met for luncheon in the Country Woman's clubhouse with Ira Grim, president, presiding. Some 45 members were present and Col. James L. McBride, a guest, was introduced.

Homer Hyde reported on the sale of tickets for a magic show the Chamber presented in the high school auditorium Saturday night.

IRAN

Iran, the ancient nation of Persia, still retains parts of a cultural heritage that goes back 2500 years. Its deep roots in the past are seen in its artistic production and love for poetry. But an ultra-modern note, too, is present in the 628,000 square mile country. It is the world's fourth largest producer of petroleum, which is found in great abundance in the mountainous land. Other important occupations of its 15,000,000 people result in the famed Persian rugs and agricultural and grazing products. Iran is represented at United Nations Headquarters by Nasrallah Entezam. Her flag has green, gold and red horizontal stripes with a heraldic lion holding a sword in the center.

Archers Meet Held Here

Sixty top-notch archers from all parts of northern California competed here Sunday for a list of trophies awarded by the state archers' association.

Black Mountain Bowmen of the Campbell district were hosts at their range on Guadalupe road, rated by one national Field Archers association representative as the "toughest in California."

Bow and arrow hobbyists from every archers' club in the state are expected at Visalia Saturday, October 25, for a similar meet.

The Campbell club will be represented by Al Briggs, John Rush, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Swarthout and Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Standish.

New Executive For Camp Fire Girls

Miss Frances Molefy is the new executive of the Santa Clara county Camp Fire Girls Council, according to a recent announcement.

Miss Molefy, who takes over the position formerly held by Miss Lois Young, attended the University of California and has been engaged in Camp Fire work since 1934 in Oakland, Piedmont, Berkeley and in Tacoma, Wash. She expects to come to Campbell soon to confer with local leaders and make plans for obtaining more leaders.

Praises Recreation Program, Community Chest's Biggest Project

Carson Conrad, consultant in equipment to the council for their Community Recreation, department of Health and Physical Education, California Education Department, stated recently that any community which has made as good a start as Campbell has done during the last year in their community recreation program, will be assured of any necessary state aid in future programs.

Conrad, who met recently with the executive committee of the Campbell Community Council, said that recreation needs of the entire Campbell community high school district will be surveyed in January. He praised the budget now set up by the council and the way funds were used during the year. Conrad is a member of the newly formed state department on community recreation which is headed by Clarence Dykstra.

A master calendar is being planned by the coordinating council with LBen Howard, president, asking all organizations to set up their calendar for the year so that dates will not be mixed.

Following is the budget for the community council for 1947. Both school board and Campbell churches donated facilities and Does Campbell Need Its Own Police Force? -- We Found Out!!

By Harry D. Blanchard

Elsewhere in this paper there is a legal description of the proposed boundaries of the area of land that the sponsors of the movement for the incorporation of Campbell see fit to designate. Without a fuller knowledge of the wishes of those whose homes and lands lie within these boundaries, we are of the opinion that all will agree the lines have been drawn with due consideration to all concerned.

Of one thing we have made positively sure; the wishes of all the people have been considered even though they have not voiced their opinions in meetings called for their views. It had to be assumed that the majority acquiesced in the actions taken.

Kiwanis Hears Convention Report

Kiwanis club of Campbell heard its delegates to the convention in San Diego October 16-19 give their reports at a luncheon in the Country Woman's Club building Tuesday noon.

Local Kiwanians were represented by Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Levenberg, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Murdock, Guy Farley, Clarence and Milton by Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Levenberg, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Murdock, Guy Farley, Clarence and Milton Nelson.

In addition to business sessions, the convention was entertained by Mexican troubadours and was visited by a band of Paiute Indians who extended an invitation for the convention to meet at Reno, Nev., in 1948. The invitation was worded in the Paiute language, to the discomfort of the official stenographer and the delight of assembled delegates who immediately asked that minutes of the proceedings should be read back to the convention.

At the luncheon in Campbell Tuesday, Ray Fish, chairman of the Community Chest campaign here, reported satisfactory progress toward the community's $3500 goal and asked continued support of Kiwanis members.

Ralph Noddin introduced his guest, Victor Corsiglia, high school athlete and student council member, who invited Kiwanis to patronize the Fremont-Campbell football game Friday evening.

Robert Carlson led group singing of old-time and patriotic songs.

Guest speaker of next Tuesday's luncheon meeting will be Russell Pettit, manager of the San Jose Chamber of Commerce. He will speak on his work in connection with the Santa Clara County Fair. He will be introduced by Lawrence Hill.

Mrs. Lawrence Returns Abroad

Mrs. Etta Lawrence is the honored guest at a series of parties being given this week to bid her goodbye before she returns to England to make her home.

Mrs. Lawrence, who has resided in California for the past 17 years, has reservations on the next sailing of the Queen Mary from New York and is quite thrilled at the prospect of seeing grandchildren who have been born since she left England.

Mrs. J. W. Fairchild of Third street was the hostess last week at a farewell party given for Mrs. Lawrence, and she was the honoree Friday at a luncheon given at the home of Mrs. Myrtle Hallett.

A member of the Methodist Church here in Campbell, Mrs. Lawrence will be missed by her many friends and neighbors.

RETURNS TO HOME

After a stay of nine weeks in a San Jose hospital, H. G. Schwab has been able to return to his home near Campbell.

I see Joe went out on a limb today and predicted fair weather. Just the same, this amateur will play the old percentages. It's Thursday, Joe, so look for showers, fog and coolish breezes.

Thursday, October 23, 1947

The Campbell Chamber of Commerce, on three separate occasions asked the citizens to come to open meeting and express their views. In these meetings there were some who voiced objections. Those people we salute. They used their prerogative of free speech. They were sincere in making their stand against the incorporation plan. In their minds they were right and on that score we do not wish to challenge them. Certainly they are entitled to their opinions.

We have made it a point to interview innumerable people as to how they felt about the subject and almost without exception they agree that it is about time Campbell became a living entity as a going city within the great state of California. The drifting as a rural community has gone on long enough, and the thousands of people calling Campbell their home want their own government, with their own voices speaking for themselves.

They want the opportunity to say to their own elective officers, "This is not right and we desire a change." Or, "We need better police protection in this or that district." As matters stand now, a person living in this area hasn't a chance to be heard with any degree of understanding. Just what would a home owner do at this moment if a crisis arose suddenly and they needed effective police action? There isn't any local police protection, so they would call on the Santa Clara County Sheriff's office. And there would come their great disappointment, and disillusionment. Sheriff Hornbuckle's office is genuinely interested in answering every call for help. But his office is limited in the amount of work it can do with the man-power it has to call upon.

As an example, and in fuller explanation of the preceding paragraph, the writer decided to use himself as a hypothetical case in dire need of official police help. We called the Sheriff's office on the phone from Campbell at four-fifteen in the morning of October twenty-third. By exact count the Sheriff's phone rang 17 times, with each ring progressively longer. Finally a voice said, "hello." We had to ask if it was the Sheriff's office. It turned out to be, so we asked if there was a car available in the Campbell area. The answer was an emphatic "no." But with due consideration for the voice, we were informed that there was a private car available in either Saratoga or Los Gatos, and were led to believe that if our trouble was serious enough we could call on either of them. For our part, we would just as soon reach for the old double-barrelled shot gun over the fireplace as to call that far for help and have to minutely describe our troubles over the telephone before the law would decide whether to render assistance or not.

British Veteran Receives Award

Among eight survivors of the "Contemptibles," famed British Army of World War I, who now live on the West Coast of the United States, is George Arlidge, of Campbell, who was recently awarded a medal and certificate as one of the members of an association of the British veterans.

The Contemptibles were the small army which prevented the German army from invading England in 1914.

The oceans of the earth are called the hydrosphere.

Where Are The Ear Plugs?

Future extension and better service of Campbell telephone lines were being assured this month with the preparatory work now going on along Campbell Avenue from Union to Second street.

The pavement is now in the process of being torn up with air compressor drills, in order to lay the four-way cable from Union to Gilman and a six-way cable from Gilman to Second street. Following the laying of the clay conduits, the pavement will be re-surfaced, and when the cable is available, it will be laid by the telephone company through the conduit without further disturbance of the pavement by means of a machine now being completed at the corner of Central and Campbell avenues.

Contractors for the ditch digging and repaving are Lowrie and Company of San Francisco, with Bud Mayfield and Harry Wisler, as telephone foremen. The job, which began Sept. 30, should be completed in approximately 10 days.

During the digging of the ditch Monday, a water pipe servicing the Campbell Post Office was accidentally broken, and according to Homer Hyde of the Campbell Water company, approximately 1000 gallons of water was lost before the line could be repaired.

Lumber Concern Resumes Milling Operations

Winchester Lumber company, Winchester and Casey roads, has resumed partial operation of its millwork shop, destroyed by a $75,000 fire September 3.

Some machinery was readied for use early Tuesday morning and replacements of equipment lost in the fire will be completed in a few days, it is understood.

Wedding, Cruise, Engage Localites

Timing a projected Hawaiian holiday so that they would still be on hand here for their son's wedding last Friday, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Orford, Allendale avenue, are packing for their departure October 31.

They will board the Matsonia for a cruise to Honolulu and an indefinite stay in the islands. A number of their friends plan to see them off on the gala trip.

Their son, Herbert L. Orford, San Jose, and Miss Virginia Kammerer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Alders, were married October 17 in the First Methodist church, San Jose, by Rev. William Kirby, Sacramento, former pastor and a close friend of the bridegroom's family.

Some 150 guests attended the evening ceremony and were entertained at a reception in the church parlors.

The bride was gowned in blue, styled in traditional bridal fashion and her attendants wore harmonizing shades of deep rose and pale pink.

Miss Farnham To Return To Tokyo

Last Thursday afternoon, fifty women of the Campbell Congregational church met at the home of Mrs. E. L. Farnham, on the San Jose-Los Gatos road, for a bon voyage party and shower in honor of Miss Grace Farnham, who is sailing from San Francisco November 8 aboard the General Sherman, to resume her duties as evangelist missionary in Tokyo.

Miss Farnham was a missionary to Japan from 1925 until 1943 when she was forced to return to the states because of the war. One year of her 18 years there was spent in a concentration camp.

She is a sister of E. L. (Emmett) and M. H. (Martin) Farnham and during her stay in Campbell has divided her time between the two homes.

Although her work as missionary is sponsored by the Christian church, because her brothers and their families are actively interested in the Campbell Congregational church, Miss Farnham has become identified with the church and the shower was for the purpose of re-equipping her missionary school which has been totally destroyed.

Aside from the serious aspect of the farewell, a pleasant afternoon was enjoyed by all present. After a short devotional led by Mrs. James McBride, Miss Farnham gave a very pleasing and interesting account of her work in Japan.

The huge pile of shower gifts included not only personal gifts but food, since she must take a year's supply with her. Miss Farnham then cut a beautifully decorated cake carrying the words "Bon Voyage" and refreshments were served.

A. G. Rodeen opened a new barber shop at 13 E. Campbell avenue early in September.

Refreshments committee chairman is Mrs. J. D. Cantoni with her assistants Mrs. H. Farcysek, Mrs. M. Lewis, Mrs. E. E. Lanphear, Mrs. E. F. Kollmer, Mrs. G. D. Wilson, Mrs. Chris Maasberg and Mrs. G. K. Schrader.

Sale of tickets for "Believe It or Not" to be played November 7 by the Footlighters, was discussed. Anyone wishing to obtain tickets may do so as all Garden club members have them.

Mrs. R. J. Lewis will entertain the group at her home November 5. Mrs. R. J. Lewis' home was the meeting place of the club October 15. Mrs. G. D. Wilson was chairman. Pictures on pest control and weed killers were shown by W. H. Harper.

Card Party Set For Halloween

The St. Lucy's Women's club will hold its first card party of the new term Friday, October 31, at 1:15 o'clock in the parish hall. Chairman is Mrs. Leslie Fairchild, assisted by Mrs. Fred Smith and Mrs. Joseph Carvalho. Refreshments will be served and the public is invited.

Polio On Increase In County

Five cases of poliomyelitis were recorded in Santa Clara County during the week ending Oct. 11, according to the State Department of Public Health. Twenty-four cases have been reported in the state.

San Jose City Health Department officials stated that this was an abnormal increase, but it did not approach epidemic proportions. Health precautions should be observed however and children should not be allowed to become overtired.

Other communicable disease in the County included three cases each of measles, and chicken pox, two cases each of mumps and streptococcal infection and one each of whooping cough and German measles.

At the same time a warning is being issued to dog owners to keep rabid dogs off streets, as a third rabid dog within several weeks has been discovered in San Mateo county.

Persons who are bitten by dogs should report to the Health Department or a physician for immediate treatment. Bite wounds should be washed with a 20 percent emulsion of green soap, according to Dr. Dwight M. Bissell. Persons are also warned against handling stray dogs.

Woody Herman At S. J. Aud. Saturday

Woody Herman and his orchestra of all-star musicians and entertainers will headline at the San Jose Auditorium Saturday, October 25, featuring many of the recorded songs made famous by the 'Ol' Woodchopper.

With the "Four Chips" and "The Woodchoppers" featured as the two bands within the Herman Herd, an evening of outstanding dancing and listening is guaranteed the local patrons. As the leader of the orchestra that has won more music polls than any other band in the entertainment field today, Woody Herman will serenade fans with his inimitable versions of such favorites as "Blues in the Night," "That's My Desire," "Caldonia," and many other Columbia record hits.

Woody has spared no expense in re-building one of the finest dance bands in America today, signing back his same crew of music greats to long-term contracts and adding innovations to make a great band greater.

Herman's engagement at the San Jose Auditorium will be one of the highlights of the current season and his limited booking in the area is considered one of the choice dates of the year by local music critics.

New Actor In "Believe It Or Not"

Campbell Court Notes

By Judge Blaine

For a whole month nobody has been arrested in Campbell for either drunkenness or disturbing the peace. So the judge himself has enjoyed unusual peace. He has been using some of it for going over old minor traffic citations and issuing warrants for defendants who failed to appear as ordered and as they promised.

Like the elephant, the law never forgets. But the driver cited for a small offense occasionally does. And soon or later the forgetter is startled by an officer with a warrant. It means either forcible taking to court or the putting up of bail.

A few weeks ago these notes told a story about a man, former orderly at our County Hospital, who had "borrowed" a pair of hair clippers, a watch, and two suit cases. He had eventually arrived at the Jail Farm with two sentences of 90 days each. A question was: Had this man learned anything toward turning over a new leaf?

Apparently he had not. In a few days he ran away. In effect he thus gave himself an unlimited floater. "Breathes there a man with soul so dead he never to himself has said, 'This is my own, my native land?'" (Something like that). In a sense there does. He is the man who breaks the law everywhere he goes. He is in a very special sense footloose and soulless. He can take root nowhere.

The Jail Farm is a good taking-off place for men nobody wants around. If men serve their sentences there in full and return home it speaks well for them. It means they have worth-while possibilities. The Jail Farm is thus an excellent test.

Named to Head March of Dimes

Governor Earl Warren, of California, has been designated California state chairman of the 1948 March of Dimes.

Announcing Governor Warren's appointment today, Basil O'Connor, president of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, closed the 1948 March of Dimes drive scheduled for Jan. 12, marks the tenth anniversary of the National Foundation. The organization was established by President Franklin D. Roosevelt to "lead, direct and unify" the fight against infantile paralysis. The Foundation is supported solely by the March of Dimes each January.

Governor Warren was 1947 chairman of California's March of Dimes. His long career of public service began after World War I, in which he served in the Army. A graduate of the University of California, he practiced law in San Francisco and Oakland and soon became Alameda County district attorney and later California attorney general.

Chosen governor in 1942, he led California's war effort and organized civilian defense. He has streamlined state government activities on a non-partisan basis. In 1946 he won both Republican and Democratic nominations.

In announcing Governor Warren's appointment, Mr. O'Connor revealed that since 1943 infantile paralysis has stricken more than 72,000 Americans.

"Thousands," he warned, "continue to face a long fight for recovery. This summer, fortunately, we had a 'breathing spell' as polio incidence nationally did not approach the awful total of 1946."

"The cost of the 1946 epidemic alone will run to some $30,000,000, without taking into account the large sums necessary to care for those stricken this summer. We do not know what 1948 may bring, but we must be prepared."

How desert
winds help speed your voice
across country

Above the desert floor we sometimes use wind-driven generators to supply power for long distance amplifying stations miles away from electric lines. When the wind dies, gasoline motors take over to charge the batteries at these repeater stations that give a "boost" to your voice as it journeys with the speed of light across the country.

"Here is your party" is the phrase our long distance operators are using more often these days. For calls East are going through faster now. To give complete service to the many new telephones we're adding, we must build more "speech highways"—all parts of the telephone system must grow.

It takes new Working Dollars... millions of them... to build buildings and buy equipment needed to meet the demand for more service. They do not come from telephone bills, but from

Once again, we want you to use our long distance facilities when you wish... as often as you wish. At some switchboards during business hours, there may still be a delay. But we're doing many things to make long distance service... and all telephone service... better than ever before.

SKYWAY POWER

New 4804 Foot Carquinez Crossing

It has already become a sightseer's attraction, our spectacular Carquinez Strait power line crossing.

Here on the hills above the bridge, men are pushing steel skyward for the 383 foot towers which will carry the transmission line cables. The six great cables will swing 4804.5 feet in an unbroken span across the Strait—a distance more than 600 feet greater than the span of the Golden Gate Bridge.

This new skyway for power is a connecting link in the 220,000-volt transmission line from Vaca-Dixon substation in Solano County to the new Moraga substation in Contra Costa County. The project is scheduled for completion in November, 1947.

The Carquinez Crossing is part of the all-out effort of the company to insure power output far ahead of future needs in this area. It is part of an expansion program which will add approximately 1,000,000 horsepower to the Company's generating capacity by the end of 1951, when the total will be more than 3,500,000 horsepower.

Orchard City Grange Notes

Five applications for membership were voted on favorably by members of the Orchard City Grange at its meeting in the Odd Fellows hall last Tuesday evening.

These members will be given the first two degrees in full form by the Gilroy drill team on Nov. 11. There are a number of members who have not had the full form initiation and they are urged to be present at the meeting to witness the beautiful and impressive degree work.

Mrs. Lavina Grattan, a member of the committee on education, reported on the work of the Dawn Society, which is a non-profit organization sponsored by the Grand Lodge of California of the International Order of Good Templars. The object of the Dawn Society is to obtain pledges from persons in all walks of life, who are willing for humanitarian reasons to pledge their eyes after death to the society for the purpose of providing corneas, so that many who are blind may regain their sight through corneal transplanting. Anyone interested in making this pledge should contact Mrs. Grattan. Address of the society is 420 Oriente street, San Francisco, 24, California.

A. C. Hall of Santa Cruz spoke on a book that he is transcribing for the California State Grange. Every Grange, Home Economics club and individual Grange member who subscribes to the State Grange building fund will have their names inscribed in this book. Hall was chosen from more than 30,000 Grangers in the state to do this work.

Two saxophone solos were presented by Lawrence Silva who was accompanied by Jeanette Gomes. Both young people are Campbell high school students.

The 75th annual session of the California State Grange convenes in Memorial Auditorium, Sacramento, Oct. 21-24. At this time, members will observe the Diamond Jubilee and renew their pledge to the Declaration of Purposes of the Patrons of Husbandry. "United by the strong and faithful tie of agriculture, we mutually resolve to labor for the good of our Order, our Country and Mankind," is the pledge.

Following are a few interesting facts about the Grange, national and state.

Fellowship Elects New Officers

Margaret Pharris was elected new president of the Methodist Youth Fellowship group recently. Other officers of the group are Chester Gaff, vice-president; Jane Taylor, secretary; and Nettie Cox, treasurer. Commissioners included Barbara Amori, recreation; Mary Lou Cline, worship; Shirley Golden, community service; Joline Howard and Richard Brown, representative to Christian Youth Council.

Following the meeting refreshments were served. The group meets every Sunday evening at 7 p. m., usually followed by a pilgrimage to some home.

Continues Lecture Series

"What lies ahead for our world? What kind of a world will we have tomorrow? What will be the final outcome of the unsettled conditions we see today?" These questions were asked by Rev. C. W. Smith at Seventh Day Adventist Bible Auditorium, Fourth and Rincon, Sunday night. The new church building was filled to capacity, and chairs were placed in the aisle to take care of the crowd for the first of a series of Bible lectures being given for the public.

The lectures are being held every Sunday, Wednesday, and Friday nights. Subject for next Sunday evening, "Glory Pictures of God's Universe"

Has a membership of over 900,000 in the United States, holds more than 250,000 meetings every 12 months. Organized in most of the states.

Embraces in its membership the entire family—father, mother, sons and daughters, on equal footing. Features every meeting with an educational program, discussing the live questions of the day.

Thoroughly democratic in its organization with the self-governing local Granges as the basis of its activities.

Is not subsidized by government, national, state or local, not by any other source outside its own membership.

Admits to membership the young people from 14 years of age and upward.

line. Orcutt passed to Gazay, who lattered to Ambler who went the distance for six points. Merrill's try for the extra point was wide.

The first quarter's performance was repeated early in the second, this time with Campbell starting from its own 35 and driving for four consecutive first downs. The ball was handed off to Wilson who smashed through the line and into the end zone for the Bucs' second score. Ambler followed suit by plunging through the line for the extra point.

The second half got under way with Gilroy receiving the kickoff. The Mustangs' plays were hindered by a hard driving Campbell line led by left end Monty Dayton who was constantly in there rushing the passer and breaking up the plays. Gilroy was forced to punt and after a series of first downs Wilson plunged over for another score and Merrill's kick split the uprites to make the score 20-0.

The Bucs took to the airways and Orcutt completed a pass to Gazay who added six points. Merrill's try for point was good.

With the score 27-0 a Gilroy pass was intercepted by Abinante, who went all the way for the final score.
